

Historic Zinesters Talking

Leanne Grabel, poet, performer, teacher, and co-founder of the legendary poetry hub Café Lena, and Kevin Sampsell, of Future Tense Books and Powell's City of Books discuss the development of chapbooks, poetry and zines in Portland.

This special series of events features longtime Portland zine creators and enthusiasts discussing zine history and sharing their experiences with independent publishing and with promoting homegrown literature in Portland.

We invite Portland zinesters new and old, as well as zine readers and local culture enthusiasts, to come reminisce, discuss and celebrate our culture!
