Little English Learners Storytime

Come to an eight-week series of fun stories, songs and games. For 3-5 year olds who are learning English and their favorite adults.

Tuesdays, October 6-November 24, 1-2 p.m.

Family Storytime

Children from birth to age 6 (with a favorite adult) enjoy books, songs, rhymes, movement activities and a simple craft while building language and literacy skills.

Wed., November 18, 6-7 p.m.

Wed., December 16, 6-7 p.m.

Story Blocks

Learn how to tell your own personal tales with story blocks! All stories have the same basic elements, and story blocks help put the tale together by giving different character, setting and plot ideas. If you roll the blocks, you have a whole new set of elements, and a new story to tell! Kids will practice story-telling skills, and then create their own 5-inch story blocks to take home. This interactive workshop compliments Tapestry of Tales events and is led by artist and author Addie Boswell. Free tickets for seating will be available 30 minutes prior to the program.

Sat., November 7, 10:30-11:30 a.m.

National Gaming Day @ Your Library

Try gaming unplugged with a variety of board games for the whole family, ages 6-106. Bring a board game to share, learn a new one or play an old favorite. Snacks provided.

Sat., November 14, 1-3 p.m.

Puppet Creations

Join artists Kathy Karbo and Blanca Vazquez for a bilingual presentation of The Very Hungry Caterpillar. After the show, make your own very hungry caterpillar and learn the elements of telling a good story. You can use your puppet creations to retell the story in your own home. Free tickets for seating will be available 30 minutes prior to the program.

Sat., December 5, 2-4 p.m.

FOR KIDS AND TEENS

Teen Service Crew

Need community service hours and volunteer credit? Check out the Teen Service Crew @ your library. Come for a two-hour block of fun, music, snacks and enough work to keep you busy! Registration required; register online, in the library or by calling 503.988.5234.

Tue., November 3, 6-8 p.m.

FOR ADULTS

Pageturners

Engage in stimulating conversation about books, exchange perspectives about characters and plot, and get to know your neighbors. Sponsored by the Friends of the Library.

Read The Nine: Inside the Secret World of the Supreme Court by Jeffrey Toobin. Based on exclusive interviews with the Supreme Court Justices themselves and other insiders, The Nine is a timely and provocative state of the union about Americas most elite legal institution. As a CNN senior legal analyst, New Yorker staff writer, and bestselling author, no one is more superbly qualified on this topic than Toobin.

Thu., November 5, 1:30-2:30 p.m.

Tue., November 10, 6:45-7:45 p.m.

Read The Invisible Wall: A Love Story that Broke Barriers by Harry Bernstein. The enchanting true story of a love affair that broke down the walls that divided a neighborhood. Bernstein has written a wonderfully charming and moving tale of working class life, social divide and forbidden love on the eve of World War I.

Thu., December 3, 1:30-2:30 p.m.

Tue., December 8, 6:45-7:45 p.m.

Harvest Bounty from Thailand to the Hopi Mesas to Mexico

Join chef and author Jean Johnson as she shares simple measure-free recipes and insights from her travels. For teens and adults. Free tickets for seating will be available 30 minutes prior to the program.

Sat., November 7, 2-3 p.m.

The History of Beads

Local artist Teresa Sullivan will present an entertaining and informative talk about the most ancient of nonfunctional art — beads. She will bring visual aids including beads, necklaces and beadwork, and invite the audience to bring beads, beaded jewelry and beadwork about which they may have questions, or for sharing their stories. The talk will take about one hour and the remaining hour will involve show and tell and a question-and-answer session.

Sat., November 14, 2-4 p.m.
