Sat., November 21, 2-2:45 p.m.

Soulstice Celebration: Folk Music of the Season

In this intimate and secular show, listeners enjoy traveling through time and cultures, across continents and oceans to hear songs and stories relating to this season of more darkness than light. Old carols, African American spirituals, Celtic, Appalachian and bluegrass traditions are represented. Portlander Lauren Sheehan plays guitar, banjo, mandolin and draws from her thesis work in American folk music, as well as her continual study with National Heritage Fellows, through oral tradition.

Sat., December 5, 3-4 p.m.

FOR KIDS AND TEENS

Teen Council

Meet new friends, learn new skills, help the library, eat snacks and have fun! Teen Council members work with library staff to make the library teen-friendly.

Wed., November 4, 4:30-5:30 p.m.

Wed., December 9, 4:30-5:30 p.m.

Make Your Own Monster

Create stuffed creatures from your own imagination using felt made from reclaimed sweaters. Basic sewing skills will be taught as well as simple pattern making. Creations will incorporate natural fibers such as silk, linen and cotton. Add embellishments like beads from broken necklaces, bracelets and other found objects. Create a new, innovative use for cast-off materials. Taught by local artist Dawn Grunwald. For teens in grades 6-12.

Sat., November 14, 3-5 p.m.
