Raven Steals the Sun

The world was once dark and cold because the sun, moon and stars were locked in a box. Based on a Native American tale and performed by Tears of Joy Theatre, this play shares how Raven the trickster brought light and warmth to the world. Made possible by the Grande Ronde Fund for Native American Collections & Programs of The Library Foundation.

Sat., January 7, 10-10:45 a.m. and 11:15 a.m.-noon

Do You See What I See?

Have fun learning all about light! If part of your morning routine includes seeing your reflection in the bathroom mirror, you have light to thank for that! In this workshop, an AKA Science instructor will engage kids in hands-on science activities to show how mirrors can be used to bounce light all over the place! Provided with support from LEAP into Science.

Sat., January 14, 10 a.m.-noon

Rainy Day Idea Cards

Cooped up inside and running out of ideas on what to do on a rainy day? Join artist Sarah Fagan in making an activity game to stay busy during the wet Oregon winter. After brainstorming fun and unique indoor activities, we will write and illustrate our ideas and collect them in a raindrop-shaped pouch.

Sat., February 4, 11 a.m.-noon

Sellwood-Moreland Library 10th Anniversary Celebration

Please join us for cake and refreshments to celebrate 10 years in our current location!

Sat., February 11, noon-12:30 p.m.

Make a Valentine for Your Library!

Make a valentine for your neighborhood library and celebrate the latest 10 years in the Sellwood-Moreland Library's long history!

FUNDamentals

Join award-winning children's educator and performer Aaron Nigel Smith as he gets the whole family moving, grooving and learning. This class introduces children to the exciting world of music through creative movement, note reading and fun instrument play.

Sat., February 18, 11-11:30 a.m.

FOR KIDS AND TEENS

Read to the DogsSM

Improve your reading skills and make a new friend by reading aloud to a therapy dog. The dogs and handlers are from the Delta Society's Pet Partners® Program, sponsored by DoveLewis. Registration required; call 503.988.5398.

Sundays, noon-1 p.m. (except January 1)

Teen Council

Meet new friends, learn new skills, help the library, eat snacks and have fun! Teen Council members work with library staff to make the library teen-friendly.

Wed., January 4, 6:30-8 p.m.

Wed., February 1, 6:30-8 p.m.

Felted Sushi

Teens will learn the ancient craft of felt-making, which is a traditional art form that pre-dates weaving. Using only raw wool, soapy water and the agitation of your hands, each teen will make a faux nori roll that will be cut up into many pieces of colorful sushi. LeBrie Rich, professional crafter and owner of PenFelt, will share the magical, low-tech process of transforming raw wool into felt.

Sat., January 21, noon-2 p.m.

Family programming made possible in part by The Library Foundation.

If you have a disability and need accommodations to participate in an event or class, please call 503.988.5402. Please give 48 hours notice to allow us to better serve you.
