Storytime for children 0-18 months with adult.

Saturdays beginning January 14, 10:30-11 a.m.

Red Fans for Lunar New Year

Decorate red accordion fans with origami paper, Chinese character rubber stamps, glitter and other materials. The fan is a traditional Chinese symbol and red paper is used to symbolize good luck and happiness throughout the year. Artist Cindy Lommasson brings back this popular craft for the new year. Registration required; register online, in the library or by calling 503.988.5234.

Sat., January 28, 4:30-5:30 p.m.

Music with Matt

Join indie music scene favorite Matt Clark for a family music show! Children and adults alike will love his funny, off-beat songs, inspired by his personal experience as a father to two young boys.

Sat., February 11, 4-4:45 p.m.

FOR KIDS AND TEENS

Homework Helpers

Homework Helpers are trained volunteers who give students one-on-one help finding the books and information they need to complete homework assignments.

Wednesdays, 3-5 p.m.

Inspirational Drawing

In this two-hour workshop, artist Joanne Kollman will guide students of all levels in the exploration of the basics of drawing and interpreting what they see. Students can choose to copy a master drawing or to interpret their own subject matter into the style of a master drawing. This process allows for artistic interpretation along with the study of light and shadow to define the form. A selection of dry media, charcoal, pencils and paper textures and tones will be available to choose from. Feel free to bring your own inspiration. For teens in grades 6-12.

Registration required; register online, in the library or by calling 503.988.5234.

Sun., February 19, 2-4 p.m.

Family programming made possible in part by The Library Foundation.

If you have a disability and need accommodations to participate in an event or class, please call 503.988.5402. Please give 48 hours notice to allow us to better serve you.

FOR ADULTS

Talk Time

Talk Time is an informal conversation circle for non-native speakers to practice speaking English. This is not a class, but an opportunity to meet new people, share your culture, and have fun. Only English will be spoken.

Tuesdays, 6:30-7:45 p.m.

Bilingual Knitting and Crocheting

Whether you are a beginner or an experienced knitter or crocheter, come to the library and join the fun! Learn basic knitting and crocheting skills, get help with an existing project, or learn fancy new patterns and techniques. Under the instruction of professional knitter Xiaoying Ruan, gain new skills while communicating and sharing experiences with Chinese-speakers and other individuals who share your hobby. All experience levels and ages welcome. Please bring your own supplies.

Wed., January 4, 3-5:30 p.m.

Wed., January 18, 3-5:30 p.m.

Wed., February 1, 3-5:30 p.m.

Wed., February 15, 3-5:30 p.m.

Wills, Trusts and Estate Planning

Learn the basics of wills, living trusts, powers of attorney and health care directives with attorney and author Richard Schneider.

Wed., January 11, 6:30-7:45 p.m.

Year-Round Gardening

Local landscape architect Dawn Grunwald will show you tricks and techniques to extend your harvest. Discover how to expand your vegetable and herb gardening throughout the year by using row covers, cloches and cold frames. Seed saving, composting and cover crops will also be discussed.

Sat., January 14, 2-3 p.m.

Pageturners

Engage in stimulating conversation about books and get to know your neighbors. Sponsored by the Friends of the Library.

Read The Truth About the Drug Companies: How They Deceive Us and What to Do About It by Marcia Angell.

Wed., January 18, 6:30-7:45 p.m.

Join us for Everybody Reads, Multnomah County Library's annual community-wide book discussion. Read The Girl Who Fell from the Sky: A Novel by Heidi W. Durrow.

Choosing an E-reader

Electronic books are the 'it' gadget of the year. But how do you know which e-book reader is right for you? Let us help you learn about the many devices that are available.

Wed., January 25, 6-7:30 p.m.

COMPUTER CLASSES

Introduction to Computers

In this fun, hands-on course (six sessions), you will learn all the basic computer skills including using the mouse and keyboard, working in Microsoft Windows, using Microsoft Word, surfing the Internet and using email. This course is ideal for someone who has a little experience with the computer but wants to know more. Note: If you have never touched a computer or keyboard before, you may benefit from attending our Meet the Computer course prior to Introduction to Computers. Offered by OASIS Connections, a national organization devoted to lifelong learning for adults over 50. Registration required; register online, in the library or by calling 503.988.5234.

Tuesdays, January 17-February 21, 10 a.m.-noon

Check the Free Classes @yourlibrary schedule for a complete list of computer classes.
