American Indian Symbols and Mask Making

Learn about Northwest Coast Native American culture through masks. Participants will create their own masks, while artist Maranee Sanders tells stories and shares symbolism. Made possible by the Grande Ronde Fund for Native American Collections & Programs of The Library Foundation. Registration required; register online, in the library or by calling 503.988.5234.
Sun., November 8, 2-4 p.m.

Family Sign-a-Long

This hands-on workshop incorporates American Sign Language into theme-oriented learning activities. Sing songs, learn and review favorite signs, listen to stories, and play signing games. This program serves as an ideal opportunity for beginning signers to sample a sign language workshop or for active signers to practice their skills. Taught by local children's author Dawn Prochovnic, MA. Registration required; register online, in the library or by calling 503.988.5234.
Sat., November 14, 3-4 p.m.

Sensory Storytime

This storytime, which is open to all preschoolers, is especially geared to children with sensory integration issues. If your child has difficulty sitting through one of the library's other storytimes, this program of stories, songs and activities may be just what you are looking for.
Sat., November 21, 9:30-10 a.m.

Tales for Jewish Book Month

Performers from the Jewish Theatre Collaborative will share dynamic, interactive stories for children 3-6 years with adult. Participants will soar with the klutzy Zitz bird on his quest to discover The Hardest Word by Jacqueline Jules and find the courage to brave the waters with Nachshon Who Was Afraid to Swim by Deborah Bodin Cohen. Free tickets for seating will be available 30 minutes prior to the program.
Fri., December 11, 10:30-11:15 a.m.

FOR KIDS AND TEENS

Homework Helpers

Homework Helpers are trained volunteers who give students one-on-one help finding the books and information they need to complete homework assignments. They volunteer whenever school is in session.
Wednesdays through December 16, 3-5 p.m.

Beaded Icicle Ornaments

Create beautiful, easy-to-make icicle ornaments for the holidays from beads and wire! For teens in grades 6-12. Registration required; register online, in the library or by calling 503.988.5234.
Sat., December 5, 3-5 p.m.
